

Checklist for individual and non-binding consulting on issues relating to ventilation and dehumidification

1. Your contact data

Name:

Phone:

Street:

Email:

Post code / city:

2. Which rooms are to be ventilated with controlled ventilation?

- Space in m²:
- Room height in m:
- Amount of windows/doors:

If possible, please send us a floor plan.

- Is it more than one room? Yes No
- How are the rooms being used?
- Is the humidity level of the air too high? Yes No
- Are there any nasty smells? Yes No
- Are there any mould spores or damp spots on the walls? Yes No
- When can you frequently recognise moisture problems?

3. Location of the rooms in the house (cellar, ground floor, first floor, top floor)

- In which part of the house are the affected rooms located?
- Are the rooms heated? Yes No
- Are there any windows in the rooms? Yes No
- Can the windows be opened? Yes No

Checklist ventilation and dehumidification

- Is there a 230 V socket? Yes No

For cellars:

- Is the basement ceiling above the ground level? Yes No
- Are the connecting doors tight? Yes No
 - If not, how big is the air slot/grid?
- Is there an open staircase? Yes No
- How do you ventilate at the moment? Permanent tilt ventilation
 Shock ventilation No ventilation

For tilt ventilation:

- What is the size of the opening angle or the max. slot?
- Can the window be opened inwards or outwards? inwards outwards
- How are the exterior walls designed on the inside? (Pure brickwork, plaster, ...)

- Können Lüftungsrohre durch die Wand gebohrt werden (Kernloch)? Yes No

4. Your wishes and comments

For example: Sound generation and disturbance (from outside/inside), filters, quiet fans, risk of burglary, optics

5. Contact:

ZILA GmbH
Neuer Friedberg 5
98527 Suhl, Germany

Phone: +49 (0) 3681 867300
Fax: +49 (0) 3681 8673099
Email: info@zila.de

